EDUCATION

We provide the tools and resources to change lives.
The obstacles advocates help victims navigate every day are daunting—thats why 2,166 advocates called upon MCADSV in 2018 for problem-solving assistance. MCADSV trained 3,629 advocates through 131 trainings, as well as 1,412 sessions of online education.
MCADSV also provided training to four other state coalitions, at the RPE National Leadership Meeting, NNEDV Leadership Roundtable Meeting, for the Kansas City Bar Association, for AmeriCorps St. Louis, and at the Annual Missouri Health Policy Summit. By providing trainings and distributing more than 21,000 copies of publications, MCADSV remains the preeminent authority for education to end rape and abuse.

MEDIA REACH

We change the conversation.
MCADSV increased its social media presence through Twitter and Facebook, allowing real time updates to members, legislative staffers, and media. On Facebook, more than 4,000 people were reached as part of MCADSV’s Domestic Violence Awareness Month #VoteSafe campaign.

MCADSV has a Twitter following of 3,079 which includes all of Missouri’s statewide elected officials and members of the General Assembly.

The MCADSV Intern Resource Network website, the nation’s first resource of its kind to address sexual harassment of student interns, had 1,301 new users in 2018.

With more than 120,000 visits to its website in 2018, MCADSV continues to be an important resource for advocates and the community. The Resources page, How to Get Help page, Training and Education pages and Public Policy pages were the most frequently visited.

Throughout 2018, MCADSV staff worked with journalists nationwide, including those at CNN, New York Daily News, Kansas City Star, St. Louis Post Dispatch, Missouri
Times, Columbia Missourian, NPR affiliates in Kansas City, Columbia and St. Louis.
Embrace the MOmentum

Although much work remains, our movement is aligning resources, rallying allies, and embracing the momentum of social change. Now is our time to lead, learn and succeed. Join the movement to end rape and abuse.

Missouri Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence (MCADSV) empowers individuals with the tools and resources that change lives.

Since 1980, MCADSV has been the statewide leader of individuals and organizations working to end rape and abuse in Missouri. Today MCADSV’s mission remains focused on the work of unifying Missourians with a shared value that rape and abuse must end, and advances this through education, alliance, research and public policy.

MCADSV enables people to be a part of something constructive and significant.

We unite to end rape and abuse.
