The Missouri Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence provides trainings that are an invaluable resource for individuals working with survivors of domestic and sexual violence. The Annual Training Pass offers the opportunity to attend a calendar year's worth of comprehensive training services and provides a way for community partners to take an active part in the movement to end rape and abuse.

WHAT THE ANNUAL TRAINING PASS PROVIDES

The Annual Training Pass is available to individuals, government departments and other entities that are not eligible for membership as established by MCADSV bylaws. Individuals and organizations have access to statewide trainings at the MCADSV Training Center in Jefferson City, MO.

WHO CAN USE THE ANNUAL TRAINING PASS

The Annual Training Pass can be used for up to three people to attend any one event. This can be three individuals who sign up for the pass together or an organization that would like to send staff. This group pass requires that larger agencies identify a specifically-named unit and staff members who would be assigned to the pass. One agency unit can have not more than 5 individuals on the Annual Training Pass and attendance at any one event is strictly limited to three people.

COST AND TIMEFRAME

The Annual Training Pass cost is $180.00 and is valid for one calendar year, starting January 1 and ending December 31. Cost will be prorated in 25% increments based on the quarter in which it is purchased (January - March = $180.00; April - June = $135.00; July - September = $90.00; and October - December = No Pass Offered).
